New Visions Awarded a Cable Television Franchise in the Village of Solvay

Syracuse, N.Y. (November 24, 2010) New Visions Powerline Communications, Inc. a provider of affordable high-speed broadband solutions, today announced that it received approval for a Cable Television Franchise for the Village of Solvay, N.Y.

“I would like to thank the Village of Solvay Board for their approval of our agreement last night,” stated Carmen N. Branca, Jr, President of New Visions.” “This franchise agreement recognizes customers demand for choice in television, broadband and entertainment services. In securing a TV franchise in the Village of Solvay, New Visions has signaled its intention to bring its revolutionary Internet Protocol TV service delivered over New Visions fiber network, into the Village of Solvay.

The company has completed the process of building and installing its Video Super Headend in the region, and anticipates that BlinkTV service will be turned on for new customers in the Village of Solvay by late first quarter of 2011.

As with all local franchise approvals in New York, the agreement between New Visions and the Village of Solvay is subject to review by the New York State Public Service Commission.
